

EBERHARDT SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

MASTER OF ACCOUNTING

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Master of Accounting (MAcc) offered by the Eberhardt School of Business is a graduate-level program designed to prepare students for licensure as Certified Public Accountants (CPA) under California's education rules. Offered on the Stockton campus, this full-time, nine-month program features a personalized, experienced-based learning environment and customized career services.

CURRICULUM

The Eberhardt School offers intellectually challenging coursework that goes beyond the traditional business school curriculum to emphasize critical skills like communication, professional ethics and applied research. In addition to advanced courses in financial accounting, auditing, federal income tax and financial statement analysis, the program includes seven units of ethics-related coursework as well as courses aimed at enhancing management skills in leadership, negotiation and corporate social responsibility.

FACULTY

Graduate students in the Eberhardt School benefit from close working relationships with dedicated and passionate professors. Our distinguished faculty members are firmly engaged in the national accounting community and provide students with exceptional opportunities for experiential learning.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The MAcc program admission process involves a holistic review that includes factors of each applicant's background and experience.

- Completed online application
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited university
- Official transcripts from all colleges attended
- Resume
- Two letters of recommendation
- Official GMAT or GRE scores

Students without prior accounting education typically spend an additional year completing coursework necessary for CPA licensure.

TUITION AND FINANCING

Tuition and fees are set on an annual basis. The per-unit graduate tuition rate for the 2016-2017 academic year is $1,377, plus applicable fees.

Graduate students who are U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens may apply for federal student loans. Please contact our Office of Financial Aid for more information about financing options.
